Lands Manager

The Job:

Under the guidance of the Director of the Natural Resource Department, and working alongside heritage and wildlife staff, the Natural Resources Lands Manager will administer land management programs and services for Vuntut Gwitchin settlement lands, monitor crown land uses within the traditional territory, and administer database systems. Managing the implementation of a land registry and land and resource legislation will be key priorities, as will International Polar Year data management.

The Candidate:

The ideal candidate will hold a degree or diploma in one or more of the following: natural or renewable resource management, land management, environmental studies, or the equivalent in training and experience. The ideal candidate will have knowledge of the principles and practices of land resource planning and management, and land management issues and legislation affecting First Nation peoples. The ability to manage projects, staff, develop policies and procedures, and create and manage information and database systems is essential. The incumbent will also need to be comfortable working in an outdoor setting. Strong oral and written communication skills are required. If you are a motivated and flexible individual who believes in balancing traditional beliefs and practices with modern thought and technique then this position might be what you've been looking for.

Pay Range: $56,677 - $68,013 per annum plus an excellent benefit package

This is a permanent full-time position based on 32.5 hours per week. (6.5-hour workday 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. & 1:00 to 4:30 p.m)

A detailed job description is available at: <http://www.vgfn.ca/employment>

Minimum one-year term commitment is required.

Closing Date: February 26th, 2010 @ 4:00 p.m. We thank all applicants but only shortlisted candidates will be contacted.
